Interaction with guests

Prior to your arrival you will be sent a detailed email with information on the owner's contact details, how to get to the villa and the check-in process. The owner will discreetly remain in touch with you using technology during your entire stay in order to offer you a completely hassle-free experience as well as share with you vital information on Crete that can make real difference to your holiday.

Other things to note

Thanks to the villa's location in the Chromonastiri village, it is not a must for you to have a car as the nearby tavernas and cafes are within 5-minute walk away. However, we would recommend you to hire a car if you wish to explore Crete.

The villa is located in the picturesque village of Chromonastiri with close by tavernas and cafes. It has been classified as a preserved and traditional heritage site of great cultural value and it is considered as one of the most important historic settlements of Rethymno. Chromonastiri means 'Colour Monastery' after the Byzantine church dating from the 11th century.

Within this pretty village there are numerous stone paths, historic alleys, buildings with Venetian architectural elements are scattered in the village, but the most imposing building is the so-called Villa Claudio, a magnificent mansion, which has been restored and now houses an Army museum.

Furthermore, a 5X5 football field and a children's playground exist in the village. Additionally, its location and surrounding area makes it a perfect destination for a relaxing holiday close to nature! Rethymno town, which is 15 minutes away by car, offers all the amenities guests will need, such as supermarkets, pharmacies, banks and ATM machines, restaurants, cafes and bars, a post office. The villa is also ideally located 10 minutes away by car from the beautiful sandy beach of Rethymno and it's offered as a great base for exploring the nearby villages! The Mili Gorge, a wonderful leafy area, can be found 5 minutes away by car, along the Amari Road. There are also a several small ponds and a picnic area. Additionally, Roussospiti village, next to Chromonastiri, also a preserved and traditional settlement, offers two traditional tavernas, playground, a cafe and mini market. Furthermore, in the nearby village of Saint Irene (Agia Irini) there is the homonymous old Monastery, which is considered to date back to the 14th century.

Additionally, from the village you can easily reach the highway leading to Chania and Heraklion cities.
